

Top Dog Returns

Mr Primrose has decided that he would like more days at the spa, so each half term we will be doing a special draw of all the children with 100% attendance. The lucky winner will become Headteacher for the day and get to give me unlimited tummy rubs!

Some play fetch, others play...

This week I have been spending time with Class 5. They've been taking me out for walks and today I joined them for a chess lesson.

Making a paw-sitive impact

To raise awareness for Children's Mental Health Week, all classes were invited to wear a scarf to school today. They also raised a brilliant £166 for Mind charity – well done School Council on your first fundraising event! And well done to me for managing not to steal anyone's scarf!

Have a lovely Half Term break and see you soon!

Pup-tastic Projects

The end of term has brought some amazing projects. I've been particularly impressed with the models from Class 1 of famous London landmarks.

Each class had a special PSHE lesson this week about children's mental health and staying connected to one another. Check out this chain that Class 6 made, all about what makes them feel connected to their families and friends.

Lots of licks, Dexter
